More Than Just Books by Golemon Assistant Librarian, Helen Cozart

April is National Poetry Month and the library will be having another poetry contest. We asked the Humanities department for a lot of help with judging our contests (and really appreciate all their help) but this time we thought we would reach out to the rest of the faculty for volunteers. Let's give our English teachers a break. If you are interested in being a judge, please contact Jon or Helen by March 20. Thanks for thinking of us.

What to do this weekend: Exciting Texas entertainment is available this weekend at the Sweetwater World's Largest Rattlesnake Roundup, the Abilene Moto Extreme Circus, or in Austin at SXSW. Get out and get your adrenaline going.

As part of our International Year, this week we are celebrating Bolivia and the Carnaval of Oruro. When the Spanish arrived, they banned the traditional Itu celebrations. Known as the Dance of the Devils, the Carnaval of Oruro was created to incorporate the native traditions with a celebration that included the Catholic rituals and has been celebrated for over 300 years. It is classified as a UNESCO Masterpiece of the Oral and Intangible Heritage of Humanity. A terrific history of the event can be found here. In 2023 it runs from February 13 to February 22. Stop by the library to explore Bolivian culture and their traditions.
