More Than Just Books by Golemon Assistant Librarian, Helen Cozart

Great break! I hope everyone is back refreshed and ready to go. We have some big events coming to the library soon, starting with the new exhibit Of Thee I Sing: Politics on Stage. Have you ever seen a musical that changed your way of thinking about a political or social issue? Musical theatre in the U.S. has engaged with political topics from its early days. From George and Ira Gershwin's Of Thee I Sing to Lin-Manuel Miranda's Hamilton: An American Musical, the intersection between entertainment, politics, and patriotism presents an emotionally powerful combination for theatergoers. Musical theatre productions featured in the exhibit include Camelot, 1776, 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, South Pacific, Allegiance, Hair, Dearest Enemy, Bloomer Girl, and Cabaret. Also covered are satire and music on the campaign trail. March 28th through May 5th.

Be sure to join us on March 29th at 6:00, during the showcase, for our opening ceremony featuring the Ranger College Choir.

We also have a Poetry Contest kicking off. Consider giving your students a point of extra credit for entering. Entries will be accepted from April 1 through April 22 followed by an award ceremony/party in the library on the 27th.

What to do this weekend: There is a lot of great stuff going on this weekend. Think of the Weatherford Music Festival as a warmup for Peach Fest in July! Amarillo is a bit of a drive, but for bull riding fans, that is no obstacle. Check out the ABBI/PBR Bull Riding.

As part of our International Year, this week we are celebrating the Hindu Festival of Holi. Holi is considered one of the most revered and celebrated festivals of India and it is celebrated in almost every part of the country and around the world. It is also sometimes called the festival of love because on this day people unite, forgetting all resentments and all types of bad feelings towards each other. The great Indian festival lasts for a day and a night. The ritual starts by lighting up the bonfire one day before Holi, symbolizing the triumph of good over the bad. On the day of Holi people play with colors with their friends and families and in the evening, they show love and respect to their close ones.
