Getting to know...Roxanne Jester

Job Title: Choir Director and Music Professor

When did you start working at Ranger College? This year! August 2022.

Where did you grow up? Tallahassee, Florida

Favorite place to eat in Texas? Heim Barbeque or Heff's!

Where can we find you on a Friday night? Either at the gym, watching basketball, or watching reality dating shows with my fiancé, Zack.

What is the last book you read? “Your Voice: An Inside View” by Scott McCoy. Not necessarily for pleasure, but for pedagogical reasons for my students.

Guilty pleasure: Reality TV! Also, I have a serious sweet tooth.

Favorite Ranger College Moment: The choir concert and talent show in the fall was incredible. It was amazing the turn-out of the student population and how supportive they were of their peers. It had me smiling for days!

Kudos

More Than Just Books by Golemon Assistant Librarian, Helen Cozart

This is our last newsletter of the school year. Thanks to everyone for all the support for the library. I want to remind you that all EBSCO databases are being turned off this week. They do not actually go away until August 31st, but I want us to get used to not having them and they don't get much use in the summer. You can still access them directly in TexShare and I will be happy to turn an icon back on if you need it. Be sure to edit your curriculum over the summer so you are assigning Gale databases instead of EBSCO.

I also want to point out that there is a total solar eclipse coming on April 8, 2024. It will move from the Panhandle toward Austin, so we will have a pretty good seat. That is a Monday, so there are a lot of opportunities for the students. The library will stock up on viewing glasses.

What to do this weekend: The main What to do this weekend page will continue to be available all summer, so enjoy those peach festivals and bicycle races. There are a ton of things to do this weekend on the site, but a great option is to stay local at the Eastland County Stampede UPRA Rodeo.

Our international year has come to a close. We hope everyone learned a little about our neighbors around the world. We explored Brazil, Italy, South Africa, Malawi, India, Papua New Guinea, Nigeria, Abu Dhabi, Malaysia, Japan, Bolivia, Laos, Nepal, Bhutan, and New Zealand as well as looked at Buddhism, Hinduism, and Islam. If you have a theme, you would like the library to develop, let us know.

Motivational Quote of the Week

The background image is a landscape at sunset or sunrise. The sky is filled with dark, dramatic clouds, and the sun is low on the horizon, creating a bright orange and yellow glow. In the foreground, there is a field of tall grass. In the middle ground, several wind turbines are visible, their silhouettes standing against the bright light of the sun. The overall mood is inspirational and hopeful.

It's not about any one person. You've got to get over yourself and realize that it takes a group to get this thing done
